DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 3-4, 6-9, 11-14, 28, 30-33, 35-45, 48, 50-65, and 95-116 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-33 of copending Application No. 10/929,916, claims 1-29 of 10/931,704, claims 1-39 of 10/929,986, claims 1-58 of 10/931,711, and claims 1-33 of 10/931,540. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they recite many features of the claims including a low tunnel barrier intergate insulator contacting the metal layer of the control gate and the floating gate. Furthermore, although the instant application is the first filed, an obviousness-type double patenting over a one-way test is proper because the case has been refilled repeatedly in order to have IDS references considered.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10/3/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the double patenting rejections are not proper because the instant application is the application with the oldest filing date. However, double patenting rejections can be made with respect to the application with the oldest filing date under a one-way obviousness test if there is not undue delay on the part of the office (see MPEP 804). The examiner respectfully submits that there has been an undue delay on the part of applicant since the examiner has allowed the case multiple times and subsequently a RCE has been filed for consideration of an information disclosure statement. Therefore, even if the application is allowed by the examiner, there is certainly no guarantee that the instant application will mature into a patent.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
